AXXONN Kill Jacko A Second Time

Thursday, July 2 2009

AXXONN are one of more confronting groups currently operating outside the mediocre mid-stream we call Australian music. The group, who specialize in coruscating sheets of unrelenting noise, have taken their com... Read News

Kicking Against the Pictures

Thursday, July 2 2009

You could be forgiven for thinking You Am I gunslinger Davey Lane had quietly moved on from his other band, The Pictures, given their relative obscurity since releasing Kicking Indifference earlier this year. It ain't so however and tonight in Melbourne Lane and compatriot Luke Thomas return to the stage for a free July residency at Brunswick's Retreat Hotel. The band will be... Read News

Join Our Happy Team

Thursday, July 2 2009

Mess+Noise's very own sugar daddy/godfather/grim overlord Sound Alliance is seeking two Advertising Account Managers to join the growing Surry Hills-based team. One is a senior role suiting an experienced campaigner who knows how to get the most from agency relationships working across our entire network of sites. The other will suit a music enthusiast keen to build their e... Read News

Hiroshima Return Home With Damaged Goods

Wednesday, July 1 2009

Brisbane's I Heart Hiroshima are clearly a band who noted Emperor Joseph II's early piece of hateful elite indie music criticism : "Too many notes, Mozart". They also follow his less well-known aphorisms "Singing in a transatlantic muddle is ok as long as you're not Craig Nicholls" and "To get anywhere in Australia, record or mix with someone well-known". To this end the b... Read News

Z-Man Records, Lance Rock Tours Rev Up

Wednesday, July 1 2009

Lou Ridsdale, former publicist for reissues label Aztec Music, is definitely a multi-tasker. The part-time Artist Production Manager for Meredith Music Festival and sister event Golden Plains has somehow found time to set up her own record label, Z-Man Records. Z-Man Records will be released in Australia via Aztec Music and overseas through Shock Export. The first Australian re... Read News

Temper Trap Go Down 'Particularly Well' At Glastonbury

Tuesday, June 30 2009

Another day, another The Temper Trap story. If it seems like just yesterday The Temper Trap were just another bunch of dudes in nice threads at St Jeromes shooting the shit over longnecks of Melbourne Bitter, heads up. Here's what they actually did a few days ago – they played mega-festival Glastonbury. The usually intemperate heads at UK rock bible New Musical Express wer... Read News

Albert's Basement Release Their Warm Cupboard

Tuesday, June 30 2009

Melbourne's beloved arts collective/DIY provocateurs/shenanigan organisers Albert's Basement have released a new vinyl record. The Warm Cupboard is a compilation giving 'a rough sketch of a bunch of happenings' in the Melbourne music community. The record, launched a few weeks back at a massive gig at the Birmingham Hotel in Collingwood, features an all-star line-up of som... Read News
